A Captain
In the Ranks

On the night of the ball Hallam took Duncan aside and said to him:

"I wish you'd take the 7 o'clock train in the morning and go up to the mines for a few days. Everything there seems to be at sixes and sevens. I can't make head or tail out of it all. All I know is that the confounded mine is losing a good many thousands of my dollars every month. I want you to go up and make a thorough investigation. If you can't find a way out I'll shut up the hole in the ground and quit."

Captain Hallam knew, of course, that Duncan could not get much sleep that night, but he had long ago learned that Guilford Duncan utterly disregarded personal comfort whenever duty called, and so he had no hesitation in thus ordering his young lieutenant to take an early morning train on the heels of a night of dancing.

"Perhaps you'd better go up there with me," suggested Duncan.

"No. That would embarrass matters. I've been up several times, and I want you to bring a fresh mind to bear upon the trouble. I'll telegraph the people there to put everything at your command. I want you to study the situation and make up your mind, just as if the whole thing belonged to you. Part of it does, you know, and more of it shall if you find a way out. If the thing can be made to go I'll give you ten more of the hundred shares in addition to the five you already own. Good night and goodby till you're ready to report."

Captain Will Hallam had recently bought this coal mine on a little branch railroad in the interior of Illinois. He had not wanted to buy it, but had done so by way of saving a debt. The mine had been badly constructed at the beginning, and latterly it had been a good deal neglected. There were other difficulties, as Duncan soon discovered, and the coal resources of the property had never been half developed. In recognition of his services in examining titles and other matters connected with the purchase Hallam had given the young man 5 per cent of the company's stock. He was thus for the first time working in part for himself when he was sent to study the situation.

Quietly, but insistently, in face of the surly opposition of the superintendent, who was also styled chief engineer, Duncan looked into things. It was true, as the superintendent sullenly said, that this young man knew nothing of coal mining. But it was also true, as Duncan answered, that he knew how to learn.

And he did learn. He learned so much that after three or four days he sent a telegram to Captain Will Hallam, saying:

Give me a perfectly free hand here or call me home. I must have all the authority you possess or I can be of no use. Answer by telegraph.

For response Hallam telegraphed:

Consider yourself the whole thing. I give you complete and absolute authority. Hire or discharge men at will. Order all improvements you think best. Draw on the bank here for any sum you need. Only make the thing go if you can.

Thus armed Duncan set to work in earnest.

"Why isn't your output of coal larger than it is?" he asked of Davidson, the superintendent.

"I can't make it larger under the circumstances."

"What are the circumstances? What difficulties are there in the way? You have miners enough surely."

"Well, for one thing the mine is badly ventilated. Many of the best galleries are filled with choke damp and must be kept closed."

"Why don't you improve the ventilation? As an engineer you ought to know how to do that much."

"It isn't feasible, as you would know, Mr. Duncan, if you knew anything about mining."

"Oh, never mind my ignorance! It is your knowledge that I'm concerned about just now. Do I understand you to say that a mine lying only seventy-five feet or so below the surface cannot be ventilated?"

"I suppose it might be if the business could afford the expense."

"The business can and will afford any expense that may be necessary to make it pay. If you know enough of engineering to devise a practicable plan for ventilating the mine I'll furnish you all the money you need to carry it out."

He had it in mind to add, "If you don't know enough for that I'll find a more competent engineer," but he kept his temper and refrained.

"I wouldn't be of any use," answered Davidson after a moment. "We're producing more coal now than we can market."

"How is that? I don't understand. Your order book—which I looked over today—shows orders a full month ahead of shipments, besides many canceled orders, countermanded because not filled promptly enough to satisfy the customers. You're superintendent as well as engineer. I wish you'd try to clear up this puzzle."

"Oh, it's simple enough! The railroad people won't furnish us cars enough. I could ship a hundred carloads tomorrow if I had the cars, but I haven't got 'em, and I can't get 'em."

"Do you mean that you are offering coal as freight to this railroad and the road is refusing it?"

"Yes, that's about it. I've asked for cars and can't get 'em, except a few each day."

"Do the other mines along this little branch railroad have the same trouble?"

"There is only one other mine on this line."

"Well, does it encounter the same difficulty in marketing its coal?"

"No—at least not to so great an extent. You see, somebody there is standing in with the railroad people. I suppose they've had a little block of stock given to them—the railroad people, I mean. So the Quentia mines get all the cars they want, and we get only their leftovers."

"Well, now, Mr. Davidson, I give you this order: Set to work at once and bring out every ton of coal you've got ready in the mine. There'll be cars here to haul it when you get it ready. Good night, Mr. Davidson. I'll talk with you another time about the other matters. I have a good deal to do tonight, so I can't talk further with you now."

Davidson went out after a grudging "Good night." Duncan did not yet know or suspect, though he was presently to find out, that to Davidson, also, the proprietors of the rival mine were paying a little tribute as a reward for silence and for making trouble.

Duncan sat for an hour writing letters. One of them was addressed to the general freight agent of the little railroad on which the mine was situated. It read as follows:

Within six days I shall have 100 carloads of coal at the mouth of this mine, ready for shipment upon orders. After that time I shall have about sixty carloads ready for shipment each day. Please see to it that an adequate supply of cars to move this freight are side-tracked here on time.

Duncan signed that letter with all needed circumspection. The signature read:

For the Redwood Coal and Iron company, Guilford Duncan, manager and attorney at law and in fact for the company.

That subscription was intended as an intimation.

When on the next afternoon the general freight agent, who had several times met Duncan at Captain Hallam's house, read the letter his attention was at once attracted, precisely as Guilford Duncan had intended that it should be, by the elaborate formality of the signature.

"So Hallam's got that smart young man of his at work, has he?" the freight agent muttered. "Well, we'll see what we can do with him." But he deliberately waited till 9 o'clock that night before responding. Then, opening the telegraph key at his elbow, he called Duncan, and Duncan, who had learned telegraphing, as he had learned many other things, as a part of his equipment for work, promptly went to his key and answered the call. The general freight agent spelled out this message:

"Simply impossible to furnish cars you ask. Haven't got them."

Duncan responded:

"The Quentia mine gets all cars needed. We demand our share, and I shall insist upon the demand."

The reply came:

"I tell you we can't do it. I'll run down to your place tomorrow or next day and explain."

"Don't want explanations," answered Duncan. "I want the cars."

"But we simply can't furnish them."

"But you simply must."

"What if I refuse?"

"Then I'll adopt other measures. But you won't refuse."

"Why not?"

"Because I know too much," answered Duncan. "I shall send to you by special messenger on the train that will pass here within an hour a letter making a formal tender of the freight. I make that tender by telegraph now, and you may as well accept it in that way. Your road is a chartered com-

BEARS IN RETREAT

Wall Street Undergoes a Complete Reversal of Sentiment of Depression.

GOVERNMENT ASSISTANCE

Secretary Cortelyou Rushes to the Rescue and Late Rampant Bears Are Stamped.

Bulls Then Take Their Turn and Toss Prices Up In a Most Sensational Manner.

New York, March 27.—A complete reversal of sentiment from the depression of Monday marked yesterday's trading in the stock market. Although London prices were lower, the New York exchange soon after the opening showed a much stronger tone than for some time past, and quotations were advanced sharply on very heavy buying. The bears began to retreat on rumors that further government assistance for the money market was imminent, and when the formal announcement came from Washington that such assistance was to be given the shorts began to cover up their outstanding contracts. At the same time there was a renewal of purchases for investment. The result was an upward turn to prices that was almost as sensational as was the sharp decline of Monday. The trading was wild and excited as the bears sought to cover and stocks were soon selling at from one to six points higher than the low points of the earlier trading.

Accompany the upward movement was an industriously circulated rumor that an enormous pool had been formed by the greatest banking houses in Wall street to support prices. This report, which was without confirmation and which was rather deprecated by conservative brokerage firms, made it appear that $50,000,000 had been subscribed by bankers to buy stocks with the object of putting a stop to the recent precipitate declines. Nothing whatever developed to give substance to this story, but it was not without effect on the trading.

Except for occasional recessions due to profit taking, the strong tone continued to the close and the final prices throughout the list were at substantial advances from Monday's closing quotations.

FORAKER SPEAKS

A Little Light Let in on the Ohio Political Situation.

Washington, March 27.—That Senator Foraker does not concede that Secretary Taft will be Ohio's choice for the presidential nomination next year is made plain by a statement issued by the senator last night. Senator Foraker says he does "not want any political honors from the people of Ohio without their hearty approval," and he suggests that the proper way to determine who is the choice of the people to head the Republican national ticket and to represent the state in the United States senate is for the Republican state executive committee to authorize a primary election to choose delegates to the state convention, which will be called upon to determine these questions.

The announcement of State Superintendent of Insurance Vorys that he will support Secretary Taft for the presidential nomination led Senator Foraker, it is believed, to issue the statement outlining his position. The senator declares that he is willing to go before the people on his record and that he has "nothing to conceal from his constituents."

Mr. Foraker does not say that he will be a candidate to succeed President Roosevelt, but it is generally understood among his friends in Washington that at a later date he will formally announce his candidacy and that if the primary election is called in Ohio, he will enter into the fight to secure the endorsement of his own state.

The Alabama Way.

Dothan, Ala., March 27.—News has just reached here of a supposed lynching near Hartford, Ala. Yesterday afternoon as the young daughter of John Mosely, a prosperous farmer living near Hartford, was returning home, a negro attempted to catch her, but her screams attracted the attention of her father, who was at work in a field near by. The negro escaped and a messenger was sent for the sheriff and dogs. When the latter arrived on the scene he was informed that his services were not needed, as the negro had been surrounded, and everything was quiet.

Students Remember Cleveland.

Princeton, N. J., March 27.—The entire undergraduate body of Princeton university paraded to the home of ex-President Cleveland and presented him with a loving cup. The cup was to have been given to Mr. Cleveland on his seventieth birthday, March 18, but he was in the South as the time.

Hondurans Recapture Trujillo.

New Orleans, March 27.—A private cablegram received here today said that the Hondurans had recaptured the port of Trujillo. This was the first Caribbean sea port of Honduras taken by Nicaragua.

JEROME PLEASED

District Attorney's Dramatic Appeal Was Granted by Justice Fitzgerald.

A COMMISSION IN LUNACY

Will Now Take Over the Case of Harry Thaw With View of Determining His Mental Status.

Three Distinguished Authorities Will Settle the Question of His Sanity or Insanity.

New York, March 27.—Harry K. Thaw may never again face the jury empaneled more than nine weeks ago to try him on the charge of murder in the first degree. Justice Fitzgerald unexpectedly named a commission in lunacy to inquire into the present state of mind of Stanford White's slayer. The decision of the three disinterested men named to conduct the inquiry will guide the future action of the court as to ordering Thaw to an asylum for the insane or directing that the trial that has been interrupted shall proceed.

Justice Fitzgerald announced the appointment of the commission privately in his chambers. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw was there with the lawyers, and it became her task to break the news to her husband in the Tombs. Tearful when she left the judge's room in the criminal courts building, the young woman who has been such a conspicuous figure in the trial from first to last was smiling and cheerful when Thaw was brought from his cell to the hospital ward of the prison to meet her. Thaw received the court's decision philosophically and said he had no doubt the commission would declare him a sane man.

The personnel of the commission named by Justice Fitzgerald lends a new distinction to this already notable case. The men who will determine Thaw's mental capacity are: Morgan J. O'Brien, a former justice of the appellate division of the supreme court; Peter B. Olney, former district attorney of New York county; and a lawyer of high legal attainments; Leopold Putzel, a practicing physician and authority on mental disorders.

The Thaw jury reported before Justice Fitzgerald this morning at 10:30. There was a brief court procedure, the jury being excused indefinitely. No date has been fixed for the first meeting of the commission. There probably will be little delay on this point, however, for the law under which the commissioners were appointed directs that they proceed with their inquiry forthwith. Justice Fitzgerald said it would rest with the commission as to whether or not its hearings shall be public. In the last case of this sort in this jurisdiction—the inquiry into the mental condition of Josephina Terranova, who killed her aunt and uncle—the commission inquiry was conducted behind closed doors. The girl was declared sane and subsequently was acquitted by the jury.

The Thaw lunacy commission will be attended by District Attorney Jerome. The lawyers for the defendant will also be present and the commission may direct and compel the attendance of any witnesses it may desire. It is probable that Thaw will be asked first of all to submit to a rigid physical examination. Having undergone several of these since his incarceration, he is somewhat nervous on this subject, but it was said last night by his counsel that he would do anything in his power to aid the commission with its work and that he hoped for an early opinion as to his sanity.

Thaw's lawyers and the defendant himself were downcast when they were first made acquainted with Justice Fitzgerald's decision, but all were manifestly pleased when the later announcement as to the personnel of the commission of inquiry was made. Mr. Delmas in particular declared that Justice Fitzgerald could hardly have selected a more generally satisfactory commission—one whose decision would command more confidence and respect. District Attorney Jerome seemed pleased with the result of the dramatic appeal he made last week to the conscience of the court, asking an interruption of the trial on the ground that the defendant was in such a mental state that he could not intelligently confer with and advise his counsel and did not understand the nature of the proceedings against him.

Heroic Section Hand Killed.

Huntington, W. Va., March 27.—Miss Emma Rousey, aged nineteen, was struck and instantly killed by a Chesapeake & Ohio train at Central City yesterday afternoon. She stepped off the westbound track to let a freight train pass and was hit by an east-bound passenger train. Perry Meadows, a section hand, tried to drag her from in front of the oncoming train and was himself killed. He is survived by a wife and two young children.

Teachers Will Meet.

Indianapolis, March 27.—The thirty-first annual session of the Southern Indiana Teachers' association, Howard Sandison president, will be held in this city on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

AILING WOMEN

How Many Perfectly Well Women Do You Know?

MISS GRACE E. MILLER

MRS. W. S. FORD

"I am not feeling very well." "I am so nervous it seems as though I should fly." "My back aches as though it would break."

How often do you hear these significant expressions from women? More than likely you speak the same words yourself, and there is a cause.

More than thirty years ago Lydia E. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass. discovered the source of nearly all the suffering endured by her sex. "Woman's ills," these two words are full of more misery to women than any other two words that can be found in the English language. Sudden fainting, depression of spirits, reluctance to go anywhere, backaches, headaches, nervousness, sleeplessness, bearing-down sensations, displacements and irregularities are the bane of woman's existence.

The same woman who discovered the cause of all this misery also discovered a remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made from native roots and herbs holds the record for a greater number of absolute cures of female ills than any other remedy the world has ever known and it is the greatest blessing which ever came into the lives of suffering women.

Don't try to endure, but cure the cause of all your suffering. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles. The following letters prove this:

OUT GUNNING FOR DOGS

The Alexandria Police Shoot Them, Licensed or Unlicensed.

Alexandria, Ind., March 27.—Under a city ordinance male dogs are taxed $3 a year and females $5; besides which the animals are not permitted to run at large. This latter clause has never been enforced till now. Recently the dogs became so numerous that patrons of the schools complained for fear their children would be bitten while going to and from school. Day and night policemen now carry Winchester, and dogs are being killed by the dozen. Several valuable animals have been slain, one of them a Scotch collie valued at $100. Owners of these animals are highly indignant, and are canvassing the feasibility of appealing to the courts to overthrow an ordinance which imposes a high tax and then suffers the animals to be killed. There is one dog running the streets unmolested, the owner having listed him as personal property and paid tax accordingly.

Whirled to Death.

Hammond, Ind., March 27.—Frank Shearer, employed by the National Fireproofing company, at Hobart while adjusting a belt was caught and whirled around the shaft, speeding 4,000 revolutions a minute, in full view of 150 fellow workmen. His arms and one leg were torn from their sockets and his head was smashed, after which his body was thrown against the roof of the building, falling to the floor a shapeless mass. He was removed to his home, where death came in twenty minutes. The workmen were so appalled by the sight that the plant was compelled to shut down till after the burial. Shearer leaves a widow and six children, the eldest nineteen years old.

Will Plead Self-Defense.

Muncie, Ind., March 27.—The grand jury has returned an indictment against John and George Glock, alleging murder in the first degree, growing out of the killing of Everett Wright a few weeks ago. It is understood that the Glocks will plead self-defense.

David Hecht Acquitted.

Winchester, Ind., March 27.—David Hecht of Evansville was acquitted last evening of the charge of having solicited a bribe while serving as a member of the Indiana state board of pharmacy. The jury deliberated an hour and forty minutes.

Fatal Fall From Handcar.

Terre Haute, Ind., March 27.—Chas. Guffy, after completing his first day's labor as a section man on the Southern Indiana railway, fell from a handcar and was struck by one following, fracturing his skull and causing death soon afterward.

Victim of Lightning.

Lafayette, Ind., March 27.—Parvin Ruyun, aged seventy, a farmer residing nine miles south of this city, was struck by lightning last evening and instantly killed. The bolt struck him on the head, tearing his hat into shreds.

At a local option election Lebanon, Ky., went "dry" by a majority of 63 votes.

MAY NOT QUIT WORK

Peace Being Sought in Threatened Railway Labor Trouble.

Chicago, March 27.—No progress has been made toward reaching a settlement of the controversy between the Western railroads and their employees who voted to strike unless certain demands were complied with by the general managers. A committee representing the men met with the general managers and submitted the result of the vote. The meeting was held behind closed doors, and while nothing official was given out, it was stated by those in authority that no definite basis for a settlement was reached. Another conference has been arranged and the effort for a peaceable adjustment of the difficulty will be renewed.

While both opposing interests on the surface appear to be determined not to concede anything, still it is the general belief that the trouble will be settled satisfactorily to both sides without the men quitting work.

Severe Electrical Storm.

Chicago, March 27.—During a severe electrical and rainstorm which passed over the city late yesterday afternoon, John Mueller, an employee of a lumber concern, was struck by lightning and killed. Nine fires were caused by bolts of lightning inside of twenty minutes after the storm began. The rainfall, which was at times accompanied by hail, was very heavy.

What Ails You?

Do you feel weak, tired, despondent, have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, "heartburn," belching of gas, acid risings in throat after eating, stomach gnaw or burn, foul breath, dizzy spells, poor or variable appetite, nausea at times and kindred symptoms?

If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from biliousness, torpid liver with indigestion, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver invigorator, stomach tonic, bowel regulator and nerve strengthener.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine or secret nostrum, a full list of its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. A glance at its formula will show that it contains no alcohol, or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, from the roots of the following native American forest plants, viz., Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherry bark, Queen's root, Bloodroot, and Mandrake root.

The following leading medical authorities, among a host of others, extol the foregoing roots for the cure of just such ailments as the above symptoms indicate: Prof. R. Bartholin, M. D., of Jefferson Med. College, Phila.; Prof. H. C. Wood, M. D., of Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., Author of American Dispensary; Prof. Jno. M. Sessler, M. D., Author of Specific Medicines; Prof. Laurence Johnson, M. D., Med. Dept. Univ. of N. Y.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., Author of Materia Medica and Prof. in Bennett Medical College, Chicago. Send name and address on Postal Card to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive free booklet giving extracts from writings of all the above medical authors and many others endorsing the "Golden Medical Discovery" if bowels are much constipated. They're tiny and sugar-coated.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

Y. may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

WEDNESDAY MARCH 27, 1907

THE superintendent of the Bartholomew county schools announces with some flourish that out of 316 pupils of the district schools of that county who took the final examination prescribed for the seventh and eighth grades, only 54 passed. To a thoughtful person that is a pretty sad story. But who is at fault where there are so many failures? It occurs to us that the school authorities and school teachers are more to blame where such a large per cent fall than the pupils themselves. It is indeed a poor teacher who can not follow a prescribed course of study adopted years ago and prepare the large majority of students in a class to pass successfully the required examinations. An occasional student will fail because of indifferent work and interest, but when practically a whole class fails the student is not wholly to blame.

May Remain Here.

Charles W. Pierce, who has just sold his pool and billiard parlor here to C. E. Miles, is from northern Indiana and came to Seymour about eighteen months ago, from Hartford City. He did a good business here almost from the first and has made a large circle of friends and acquaintances. He is a graduate of the college at Valparaiso and spent seven years in the teaching profession in Blackford County after which time he spent five years in the prosecuting attorney's office in Hartford City just previous to his coming here. He was the first lawyer admitted to the bar in Blackford County's new court house. He finished reading law in the office of his brother Eliza Pierce, at Hartford City, who was here last spring on a visit and made the acquaintance of a number of the attorneys of this county. About a year ago S. D. Pierce, also of Hartford City, came here and since that time has been assisting his brother. Their place of business was conducted orderly and there were no complaints from any one.

Mr. Pierce has not yet decided just what he will do but will probably be connected with the real estate business in some way, either here or elsewhere. He has been considering a proposition to go into the real estate and immigration business with one of his brothers who has already been successfully engaged in that business for several years in the oil fields of southwestern Kansas. However, he will probably remain here for some time at least, and may enter a law and real estate office in this city and work in conjunction with his brother in Kansas. He sees great possibilities for the future of Seymour and is strongly inclined towards locating here permanently. S. D. Pierce will probably return to Hartford City.

WELL DONE

The County Chairman Made a Great Hit.

The presentation of "The County Chairman," George Ade's famous comedy, at the opera house Tuesday night made a decided hit. No home talent play ever given here was more thoroughly enjoyed than this one, although there have been some splendid plays presented here in the past by home talent. To give "The County Chairman" was a big undertaking but Mr. W. L. Johnson, who had general charge as manager, and the members of the cast were equal to the occasion. They took hold of the task and mastered it in every detail. Especially credit is due Mr. Johnson whose untiring energy and splendid management made the play such a decided success.

The play was well interpreted and the different characters were especially well chosen, each one being peculiarly well adapted to the part taken. The stage settings were excellent in each scene and the make-up of the individual characters was first class. Every player did very well indeed and merits special commendation.

The audience packed the house and many others would have gone but for the fact that all the tickets were sold when they applied. The great crowd showed their appreciation from the start and the applause and laughter were frequent in every act. The people here are indebted to Mr. Johnson and every member of the cast for an opportunity to see such a good play given by home people. Many would like to see it repeated.

The cast of characters was as follows:

The Honorable Jim Hackler, County Chairman.....Claude Carter
Tilford V. Heeler, his Junior Law Partner.....Bert Kasting
Elias Rigby, opposition candidate for Prosecuting Attorney.....Earl Cox
Riley Cleaver, editor of the "Patriot".....F. Wayne Hancock

NEED OF RECIPROCITY

Uncle Sam Confronted With Prospect of French Tariff War.

Washington, March 27.—Although from the necessities of the case, the German decree extending minimum tariff rates to American products imported into Germany being about to expire within three months, the state department has been giving its close attention to negotiations with the German government looking to the continuation for a short time at least of some kind of a working agreement to prevent a breach in the trade relations between the two countries, the department has by no means overlooked the complaint of the French government at the American failure to enter into a reciprocity treaty. The fact is, the department has been very unpleasantly reminded of this grievance by the application in France of certain rules and regulations which bear very hard upon the American exporter, and it has noted with concern the threat of legislation in France which if finally enacted and applied will, it is feared, go far toward destroying a great part of the American trade with that country.

It is realized that the executive branch of the government can do very little to avert the evil consequences of such action by the French authorities in view of the declination of congress to consider the pending French reciprocity treaty. All that possibly could be done under the existing conditions to meet the French desires would be to enlarge the list of articles which may be imported from France at reduced rates under Section 3 of the Dingley act, by the addition of champagnes or sparkling wines.

It is probable that to offset the complaint that undue favoritism is being exhibited toward Germany, the state department would be willing to extend to France concessions similar to those which it is able to offer to Germany. This will exhaust the powers of the executive branch of the government, until congress shall see fit to enlarge them, either through the adoption of the maximum and minimum tariff system or by approval of some of the pending reciprocity treaties.

A DOUBLE DUTY

It Is Important to Know How to Fix for Sudden War.

Washington, March 27.—Senator Beveridge introduced to President Roosevelt, Dr. Sol C. Dickey, president of the Technical Institute, Indianapolis, and Dr. R. M. Russell of Westminster college, who asked the president if he would not make a speech there before the trade convention to meet in the Technical Institute May 29, 30 and 31. The president is to speak at the Lawton monument unveiling on May 30 and will consider the question of making a second speech.

One of the callers told the president that the Technical Institute was "where they turn swords into plowshares."

"Yes, but if the time ever comes they want to know how to turn the plowshares into swords," was the quick response of the president.

Iron Workers Vote to Strike.

San Francisco, March 27.—All the union men affiliated with the Iron Trades Council have voted to strike May 1. Over 6,000 men in this city are involved. They demand an eight-hour day. The strike will affect not only the big plants, but all the machine, copper and boiler shops in this city, and all the construction work which requires the use of iron. It is anticipated that the small shops will concede the demands, but the big plants may fight. If they resolve to do so the complications will be serious, as the last strike lasted for ten months.

Roumanian Trouble Assumes Proportions of Civil War.

Vienna, March 27.—The rising of the peasants in Roumania is assuming the proportions of civil war. The movement is directed not only against the Jews, but also against the Christian land owners. The trouble now extends from one end of Roumania to the other, and even the capital city of Bucharest is in fear of an attack. Reports of sanguinary encounters are received constantly, and each day shows the disorders to be more deep-seated and far-reaching.

There was sanguinary fighting in the streets of Petrosou, when 2,000 peasants led by three students entered the city and sacked and destroyed many buildings, including the palace of Prince Stirbi. In the districts of Teleorman and Vlaschia, twenty-five landed proprietors have been killed and forty-two villages have been burned. The movement has extended through the entire province of Wallachia, and almost every hour brings a report of a more or less bloody encounter between the soldiery and the peasants.

Several members of the Indiana Grain Dealers' association and of the railroad commission are going to Chicago tomorrow to protest against the proposed advance in freight rates on grain. The railroad representatives will be asked to hold off the increase in rates for thirty days in order that grain men may have a chance to get rid of the great accumulation of grain that is now in their elevators.

As the result of a conference of passenger agents and traffic officials of the various railroad systems operating in Ohio and Indiana, the fares for Sunday excursions during the coming season will be lowered in a few instances and none of the Sunday business will be abandoned.

DIED.

OESTING.—John Oesting, one of the leading citizens of this city, died at his home on South Walnut street at 9 o'clock this morning. Erysipelas was the immediate cause of his death though his health had been declining for several years. Last Friday afternoon he went to his home from the office at the Woolen Mill and was not able to return after that, being confined to his bed most of the time. His death came as a shock to the entire community for he was a man of prominence and held in high esteem by a host of friends.

John Oesting was born in Cincinnati Sept. 8, 1845. He was a son of John D. and Julia Amelia Oesting. He had one sister and two brothers, all of whom are dead except Miss Lou Oesting, of Cincinnati. When a boy he came with his parents to Dudleytown, in this county and later to Seymour. October 2, 1873, he was married to Hannah Thoele, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Thoele. To them were born five children, four daughters and one son. Amelia died Aug. 16, 1898. The surviving children are Mrs. Harry Thompson, of New Albany, Miss Clara, Miss Alice and Carl. Mrs. Oesting died April 29, 1888. His second marriage was to Miss Eunice S. Love, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Love. She died Nov. 1, 1896. Mr. Oesting was a stockholder and the secretary and treasurer of the Seymour Woolen Factory Company for many years. He was connected with the Woolen Mill continuously for 36 years except one year that he was in the grocery business where the Hoadley store now is. He began work at the mill when it was owned by Butler & Love. He always took a deep interest in the affairs of Seymour and had served as a member of the council and on the school board.

The funeral will be held some time Friday, the hour for which will be announced tomorrow.

EVERHART—A message was received here today announcing the death of Beulah, the 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Everhart, of North Vernon. She had been ill only a short time and the report of the death was quite a surprise here. The remains will be brought here tomorrow for burial.

Run-down People

NEED VINOL the modern strength creator and body builder

Many people right here in this vicinity all run down and hardly able to drag about,—don't know what ails them.

In ninety-nine cases out of a hundred this is caused by overwork, too close confinement or continued strain and worry.

W. F. Peter, of the W. F. Peter Drug Co., says: "Such people need Vinol, our cod liver preparation without oil, which contains in a highly concentrated form all of the medicinal and strength-creating element of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cod's livers, but from which the useless oil has been eliminated and tonic iron added."

Vinol cures conditions like this because in a natural manner it increases the appetite, tones up the digestive organs, makes rich, red blood, and strengthens every organ in the body.

We ask every man, woman and child in this vicinity who is run down, tired and debilitated to try Vinol on our offer to return money if it fails. W. F. Peter Drug Co.

Note—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Seymour, it is now for sale at the leading drug store in nearly every town and city in the country. Look for the Vinol agency in your town.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney Co., Toledo Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

It is said that he had choice between a position here, one at Jeffersonville and the one at Jonesville and decided to accept the latter. His household goods are already packed and Mrs. Butler and the children left this morning for Marion, Ind. on a visit of several days with her parents and other relatives and friends. Albert Mains, of Jeffersonville, son of Dr. L. M. Mains, of this city, will take the position that Mr. Butler is leaving and has been here for the past few days acquainting himself with the duties of the office. Mr. Mains has already been in the employ of the Pennsylvania railway company for some time and will not be a new man at the business by any means.

Moving To Los Angeles.

Mrs. David Kirkwood and three children and her niece, Miss Precious Patterson, all of Terre Haute, were guests of the Steel house at noon today. They were en route to Cincinnati where they will visit about two weeks from there they will go to Los Angeles for future residence. They have sold out all their property and Mr. Kirkwood left Terre Haute Tuesday for Los Angeles. Mr. Kirkwood has resigned his position as a locomotive engineer on the Southern Indiana, which position he had held for several years. It is said that Mr. and Mrs. Kirkwood are going there for their health. They were formerly residents of Seymour and moved from here to Terre Haute three years ago this summer.

W. B. REDUSO for LARGE WOMEN

Restraints tendency to overfleshiness, and moulds the over-developed proportions into graceful outlines hitherto thought to be attainable only by slimmer figures.

This splendid result is attained by an unboned apron extension which reaches down over the abdomen and hips, giving the wearer absolute freedom of movement.

This feature absolutely eliminates the necessity of any harness-like devices and straps, hitherto deemed essential on corsets of this kind.

Reduso Style 750—(For tall stout women, which is illustrated here, is built as per description, with medium high bust. Made of durable coutil, in white or drab. Hose supporters front and sides. Sizes 22 to 36. Price, $3.00.

Reduso Style 750—(For short stout women), is the same as style 750 except that the bust is somewhat lower all around. Made of white and drab coutil. Hose supporters front and sides. Sizes 24 to 36. Price, $3.00.

Health in the Canal Zone.

The high wages paid makes it mighty temptation to our young artisans to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama Canal. Many are restrained by the fear of fevers and malaria. It is the knowing ones those who have used Electric Bitters who go there without this fear well knowing they are safe from malarious influence with Electric Bitters on hand. Cures blood poisons too biliousness, weakness, all stomach liver and kidney troubles. Guaranteed by W. F. Peter's drug store 50c.

Some Wholesale Shooting.

Muskogee, I. T., March 27.—In a pitched battle between deputy marshals, the city police and an unknown negro here, two negroes were killed, one of the policemen and a travelling salesman fatally wounded, and another negro probably mortally hurt.

Negro Murderers Plead Guilty.

St. Louis, March 27.—In the criminal court William Robinson and Perry Smith, two negroes, pleaded guilty to the charge of having murdered John H. M. Osborn, a livery man, last December, and were sentenced to ninety-nine years in the penitentiary.

To remove a cough you must get at the cold which causes the cough. There is nothing so good for this as Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. The liquid cold relief that is most quickly effective that stills and quies the cough and drives out the cold. Sold here by all druggists.

Troops Give Battle to Peasants.

Bucharest, March 27.—Reports have been received here of a regular battle between peasants and troops in the streets of Alexandria, Wallachia, about fifty miles from Bucharest. Sixty men were killed and 300 were wounded before the rioters were repulsed. Alexandria has been placed under martial law.

Protecting the Palace.

Bucharest, March 27.—An additional 1,000 troops under the command of General Cornicenco have been concentrated in the vicinity of the capital for the protection against a peasant attack and in the fear of such an occurrence, the royal palace has been surrounded with artillery.

The Touch That Heals

Is the touch of Bucklin's Arnica Salve. It's the happiest combination of Arnica flowers and healing balsams ever compounded. No matter how old the sore or ulcer is this salve will cure it. For burns, scalds, cuts wounds or piles, it's an absolute cure. Guaranteed by W. F. Peter's Drug Co. 50c

Hammond Suffers From Storm.

Hammond, Ind., March 27.—A severe electrical and wind storm struck this city and vicinity yesterday afternoon and did considerable damage to outbuildings and trees. In the city proper awnings were twisted to pieces and plate-glass windows in the business houses were smashed. A down-pour of rain accompanied the storm and many basements were flooded.

A Human Appeal

A human citizen of Richmond, Ind., Mr. U. D. Williams, 107 west Main St., says: I appeal to all persons with weak lungs to take Dr. King's New Discovery the only remedy that has helped me and fully comes up to the proprietor's recommendation. It saves more lives than all of the throat and lung remedies put together. Used as a cough and cold cure the world over. Cures asthma, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quinsy, hoarseness, and phthisis, stops hemorrhages of the lungs and builds them up. Waranteed at W. F. Peter's Drug Co., 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

A Wisconsin Mystery.

Rice Lake, Wis., March 27.—Shot dead, the body of Prokop Plecty, town clerk of the town of Haugen, eight miles north of this place, was found in his burning office and residence by neighbors. Whether it was a case of suicide or murder is not known. The fatal wound was caused by a bullet from a 22-caliber rifle. Plecty was supposed to have considerable money in the house.

DIED.

ELKINS.—George Elkins, a young man twenty-six years of age and who resided with his father, Charles Elkins, on the Dickinson farm three miles northwest of Cortland, died Sunday evening at 8:40 of brain fever which developed from injuries received in an accident three or four weeks ago. He was driving along near Cortland on the running gears of a wagon when the horses scared at something and making a quick jump threw Mr. Elkins off backward. The wheel ran over his head and it is thought now that perhaps his skull was slightly fractured. In a somewhat dazed condition he made his way to the office of Dr. Richards in Cortland. His face and head were bruised and bleeding. He was out of bed and around most of the time after the accident occurred and was in Cortland a number of times but never seemed to get all right and complained of the headache a great deal.

The funeral occurred Tuesday and the burial was at the Mt. Healthy Cemetery in Bartholomew county near Waymansville.

"In 1907 I had a stomach disease. Some physicians said. Dyspepsia some Consumption. One said I would not live until spring. For four years I existed on boiled milk, soda biscuits and doctors' prescriptions. I could not digest anything I ate; then I picked up one of your Bismarck and it happened to be my life savor. I bought a fifty-cent bottle of Kodol and the benefit I received from that bottle all the gold in Georgia could not buy. In two months I went back to my work as a machinist and in three months I was well and hearty. May you live long and prosper." C. N. Cornell, Ga., 1906. The above is only a sample of this great good that is daily done everywhere by Kodol for dyspepsia. It is sold here by all druggists.

Lost and Found.

Lost between 9:30 p. m., yesterday and noon to-day, a bilious attack, with nausea and sick headache. This loss was occasioned by finding at W. F. Peter drug store a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills the guaranteed cure for biliousness, malaria and jaundice 25c.

Little gl' bales of sunshine that drive the clouds away. DeWitt's Little Early Risers will scatter the gloom of sick-headache and biliousness. They do not gripe or sicken. Recommended and sold here by all druggists.

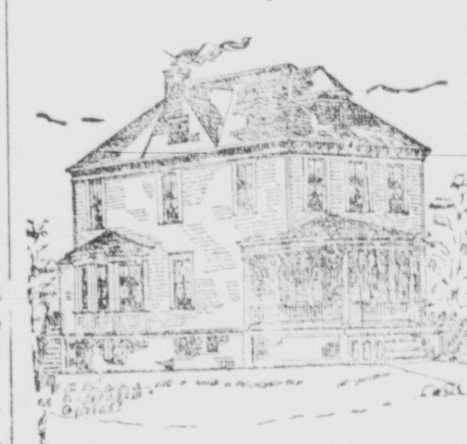

Woman's Fatal Mistake.

South Bend, Ind., March 27.—Mrs. Jay P. Miller, aged thirty-five years, was fatally burned at her residence. Mistaking gasoline for coal oil, she poured the liquid into boiling water, which she had prepared for boiling purposes, and she was literally cooked about the arms and breast in the explosion which followed. The clothing was also burned off her body.

The winds of March have no terror to the user of DeWitt's Carbonized Witch Hazel Salve. It quickly heals chapped and cracked skin. Good too for boils and burns, and undoubtedly the best relief for piles. Sold by all druggists.

SAVING MONEY Becomes a Pastime Through Building and Loan Association

There are school children in Seymour who are carrying one or more shares of stock in the Cooperative Building and Loan Association. There are laboring men who are paying for homes through the same medium. There are men who are getting business capital in the same manner. There are others who are saving money as an investment through the Association. Twenty-five cents per week pays for one hundred dollars when the stock matures and every payment begins earning interest just as soon as it is paid in, for the money of the Association is kept loaned on first mortgage real estate security.

After April 1st no premium will be charged on loans so that the borrower pays a straight six per cent. interest. An annual membership fee of 25 cents per share is charged on all new stock issued and 25 cents per week dues is all the expense the stock until a loan is made on it. —then the interest is payable the first Monday in each month. Series M of this stock will begin on Monday April 1st affording another excellent opportunity to begin saving. For full particulars see the secretary, Thos. J. Clark.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL.

Health is Worth Saving and Some Seymour People Know How to Save It.

Many Seymour people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is the statement of a Seymour citizen who has good health by the use of this remedy:

Mrs. Jacob Connors, of 406 Bruce St., Seymour, Ind., says: "Previous to using Doan's Kidney Pills my back annoyed me for a long time with dull pain and weakness across my loins and over the kidneys. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Milhoos, drug store and the trouble soon left me. My husband came home one night complaining of backache and said that he had suffered for over two weeks with the trouble. His back became so bad that I had to help him up stairs at night. I procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills for him, he used them and they banished the trouble. I have never heard him complain since."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doans—take no other.

RHEUMATISM BREAKS DOWN THE STRONGEST CONSTITUTION

Rheumatism is caused by a sour, acid condition of the blood, brought on by chronic constipation, weak kidneys, poor digestion and a general sluggish condition of the system. Because of these irregularities the refuse and waste matters of the body are not promptly expelled, but are left to sour and ferment, producing irritating acids which are taken up by the blood and distributed to all parts of the system. This acid matter weakens and diseases the blood so that instead of supplying the body with nourishing, healthful properties it deposits the poison with which it is loaded into the muscles, nerves, bones and joints, and Rheumatism gets complete control of the system. Some suffer almost constantly with the disease, while others have intervals of freedom, during which they live in constant dread of the next attack, when an exposure to cold or dampness or some other irregularity will cause the symptoms to return. If the cause is not removed Rheumatism will progress and reach a point where it becomes incurable, and the strongest constitution will break down. S. S. S. has been curing Rheumatism for more than forty years. It attacks the disease at its head by going down into the blood and removing every particle of the acid matter and building up the weak, sour blood to a state of purity and richness. S. S. S. is the King of blood purifiers, just what is needed for the cure of Rheumatism. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice sent free.

The Travis Carter Co

in small cities and towns, because

1. There is not a sufficient population to support a GOOD school.
2. Such schools are usually conducted by persons who are NOT qualified, or who make it a practice to travel about and disregard their patrons.
3. There are few if any opportunities for their graduates to secure employment in such localities.
4. The THOROUGH business colleges are located in the larger cities and are conducted by persons who are qualified.
5. The graduates of business colleges in small cities or towns can not secure employment in large cities when thrown in competition with the THOROUGH graduates of high-class schools, as business men have no time to experiment with incompetents. Therefore, be wise. Send for the finest page catalogue ever issued by a commercial school, before deciding to throw away your money for a worthless training at some cheap school.
